1. A committee of the school staff has been studying our curriculum with a view to submitting proposals about the course to be offered when all non-covert professional employees are routed to us for basic training. We have been discussing plans which would provide for a two-stage course, with sessions of either four or six weeks' duration. The first session would be designed for all new professional employees and the second for those assigned to Offices under the DD/I and for our JOT's.
